Politics

- The National Alliance, headed by Sheikh Khalid al-Atiya, held discussions with Kurdistan region president Masoud Barzani, which were described as "candid". In a statement, the high ranking delegation of the National Alliance reached to Arbil to discuss "a number of issues related to the general political situation in Iraq and the relations between the Kurdistan region and the central government". Sheikh Atiya said that "the meetings were positive, where all stressed enhancing dialogue to end the current crises". (Aswat Al-Iraq)
- Kurdish region premier Njirvan Barzani denied that "the Kurds are thinking of separation from Iraq", but lashed a severe criticism on Premier Nouri al-Maliki charging him of "hegemony", stressing rejection of replacing a dictator with another. In a statement, he added "we were independent before 2003, but after the downfall of the ex-regime, we returned, by our will, to Baghdad to work according to the constitution which was voted by 80% of the Iraqi people." (Aswat Al-Iraq)

Economics

- According to the industry sources, the first cargo of Iraqi Kurdistan's crude oil has been sold on the international market. However, the central government of Iraq has marked this action of the semi-autonomous state as unconstitutional. From Genel Energy's Taq Taq oilfield, the crude has been pumped up. From Iraq's northern border, it has been transported into the global market through Turkey. (Iraq Directory)
- Siemens Turkey and Japan's Toyota Tsusho are to build 24 electricity distribution centres in Iraq, in a deal worth $81mn. The two companies signed a deal to join forces in the transformer station project, which have a total capacity of 31.5MW. (Iraq Business News)

***When the original shares resume trading, we start using the number of shares that the company will reach after the capital increase with the assumption that the capital increase was reflected to the price of the shares. We use the new capital in calculating Mcap.

Note: "Suspend/ISC" companies are not trading due to ISC Instructions.

"Suspend/GA" companies are not trading due to General Assembly Meetings.

"(NR)": These are the companies which are trading in the Non-Regular market (in compliance with Iraq Securities Commission law numbered 132/9 on 20/12/2012). These companies were moved to the secondary market (non-regular) because of the decrease in their trading volume and the number of days that these companies are being traded for. Please note, according to the Regulations of the Secondary Market, in each trading session, the average share price will be calculated for each share. The maximum increase and decrease of +/- 20% will be based on the average price in the previous session. The price should be valid during three effective trading sessions after the listing, and it will be free in the first trading session after capital increasing.
