News from Iraq

Politics

- UN representative to Iraq Martin Kobler warned that the country is "moving to nowhere, unless strong and active procedures are made to stop spreading violence". In a strong-worded call, he demanded "self-restraint and serious dialogue", in response of Haweeja area incidents that resulted in hundreds of casualties all over Iraq. He called all political and religious leaders to resort to wisdom and national dialogue, because "the country is standing on cross-roads". (Aswat Al-Iraq)
- Kurdish sources confirmed that a delegation representing the Kurdish government will visit Baghdad on Monday to discuss pending questions between the two sided and Haweeja crisis. The delegation will be headed by Kurdish premier Njirvan Barzani. (Aswat Al-Iraq)
- Premier Nouri al-Maliki warned against the dangers of civil war, similar to 2005-2007 war, calling to solve current problems through dialogue. "Iraq is affected by neighboring situation and what is happening is but a reflection of these events", Maliki confirmed. He called for "openness, dialogue and discussing the issues in a national manner". (Aswat Al-Iraq)

Economics

- The Anglo-Turkish oil and gas independent, Genel Energy, has announced that a second drill-stem test carried out on the Chia Surkh 10 well has confirmed the existence of an additional oil bearing section. The test was carried out over a 12 metre zone in a younger Miocene section than the first drill-stem test, and flowed at sustained rates of 3,200 barrels of oil a day and 8.4mn cubic feet of gas. (Iraq Business News)
- Since the beginning of the year of 2013, the Iraqi Kurdistan autonomy has cleared its aggressive oil export intent by doubling the export amount. Oil explored from the Kurdistan region is trucked over Iraq's northern border with Turkey, bypassing Iraq's federal pipeline system, increased to nearly 60K bpd, and are expected to grow to 70K bpd in May. 350 tanker trucks are expected to be loaded per day from this region. (Iraq Directory)

"(NR)": These are the companies which are trading in the Non-Regular market (in compliance with Iraq Securities Commission law numbered 132/9 on 20/12/2012). These companies were moved to the secondary market (non-regular) because of the decrease in their trading volume and the number of days that these companies are being traded for. Please note, according to the Regulations of the Secondary Market, in each trading session, the average share price will be calculated for each share. The maximum increase and decrease of +/- 20% will be based on the average price in the previous session. The price should be valid during three effective trading sessions after the listing, and it will be free in the first trading session after capital increasing.
