News from Iraq

Politics

- Iraq's parliament passed a law on Saturday intended to block Prime Minister Nuri al-Maliki from a third term, as the Shi'ite premier faced growing pressure from mass Sunni street protests. Lawmakers from Sunni, Kurdish and Shi'ite parties voted for the law, but the legislation still needs the president's approval and will face challenges in federal court after Maliki's supporters rejected it as illegal. (Reuters)

Economics

- Iraq has told Exxon Mobil it must choose between working in its southern oilfields or in Kurdistan, and Baghdad expects the U.S. oil major to make a final decision in a few days, its oil minister said on Sunday. "We made it clear to Exxon in the last meeting that the answer we expected from them is either to work in the Kurdistan region or to work in southern Iraq," Oil Minister Abdul Kareem Luaibi told reporters. (Reuters)
- Iraqi energy officials on Sunday signed an oil exploration deal with a Kuwait-led group, finalizing a deal that was altered to expel a Turkish firm amid worsening ties with Ankara. A contract was inked with Kuwait Energy and Dragon Oil of the United Arab Emirates to explore a 900-square-kilometre (350-square-mile) block thought to contain oil in south Iraq, near the country's border with Iran. (Channel News Asia)
- The National Investment Commission (NIC) has awarded India's Welspun Corporation an investment license to establish a factory for the production of iron welded pipes in Basra province. A press release from the Council of Ministers says that the cost of the project is $450mn (IQD540bn). (Iraq Business News)
- Foreign Minister Hoshiyar Zebari met with his Kuwaiti counterpart, Sheikh Sabah Al Khalid, in Riyadh to discuss relations between the two countries. Amongst the issues discussed were the compensation due to Kuwaiti Airways, the endorsement of the joint administration agreement for the navigation of the Khor Abdullah, and the starting of the work of the technical committee sponsored by the UN relating to borders. ***When the original shares resume trading, we start using the number of shares that the company will reach after the capital increase with the assumption that the capital increase was reflected to the price of the shares. We use the new capital in calculating MCap.

Note: "Suspend/ISC" companies are not trading due to ISC Instructions.

"Suspend/GA" companies are not trading due to General Assembly Meetings.

"(SM)": These are the companies which are trading in the secondary market (in compliance with Iraq Securities Commission law numbered 132/9 on 20/12/2012). These companies were moved to the secondary market (non-regular) because of the decrease in their trading volume and the number of days that these companies are being traded for. Please note, according to the Regulations of the Secondary Market, in each trading session, the average share price will be calculated for each share. The maximum increase and decrease of +/- 20% will be based on the average price in the previous session. The price should be valid during three effective trading sessions after the listing, and it will be free in the first trading session after capital increasing.
