Iraqi Dinar vs. USD

Politics:

- Britain has frozen plans to withdraw about 1,500 soldiers this spring after the faltering effort to drive Shiite militias from Basra raised doubts whether the Iraqis are capable of maintaining security in the country.
- Muqtada al-Sadr has called on his Mehdi Army militia to stop fighting Iraqi government forces after six days of clashes. The Shia cleric also demanded that the government cease arresting his followers and release those detained.
- According to a senior US senator, the Iraqi government's failure to wipe out Moqtada al-Sadr's Mahdi Army during a crackdown in Basra last week may leave the group stronger in the long run.
- Moqtada Al Sadr has urged his supporters to participate in a million-strong march against US occupation on April 9, coinciding with the fifth anniversary of Baghdad's fall.

Economy:

- The stock exchange's Sunday session was cancelled this week, due to the curfew in Baghdad.
- Increased oil revenue will allow Iraq to add $5 billion to its budget for 2008, which will be spent on investment in infrastructure and services.
- The head of Royal Dutch Shell has said the company is ready to help Iraq boost oil production once its government finalises a petroleum law covering big energy projects.
- Iraq has signed a contract worth $5.5 billion with Boeing to buy 40 new aircraft and a $400 million contract with Canadian aircraft manufacturer Bombardier to purchase 10 passenger planes.
- The Iraqi government has announced that it has allocated US$ 100 million in urgent aid to support services in Basra.
